Introduction

Meba Microfinance Institution Share Company (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") is established and operating a microfinance business in accordance with the Commercial Code of Ethiopia, the Microfinancing Business Proclamation No. 626/2009 (as amended by Proclamation No. 1164/2020), the Commercial Registration and Licensing Proclamation No. 980/2016, and the relevant directives of the National Bank of Ethiopia.

The Company's Memorandum of Association was first approved and put into effect by the Founders' General Assembly on April 8, 2023. Since then, the Company has been conducting its operations managed by a Memorandum of Association prepared in accordance with the 2021 Commercial Code of Ethiopia.

However, the financial sector in our country is currently undergoing rapid policy and legal framework changes. In order for our Company to align and strengthen itself with these dynamic conditions, remain competitive in the market, and ensure legal compliance based on existing realities, it has become necessary to amend the Memorandum of Association. Consequently, the shareholders of the Company approved this amended Memorandum of Association at their Extraordinary General Assembly held on November 20, 2025.

12.3 Article 289 of the Commercial Code shall apply regarding the procedures the company must follow to collect unpaid balances on shares.

Article Thirteen: Rights of Shareholders

Without prejudice to the rights provided by law, each shareholder of the company shall have the following rights:

13.1 To attend, participate, express opinions, object, and vote at general meetings, either in person or by proxy

13.2 To receive a share of the net profits of the company, as well as a share of the remaining net assets of the company upon its liquidation, proportional to their shareholding

13.3 To vote and to be elected as a member of the company's Board of Directors in accordance with the criteria set by law

13.4 To transfer their shareholding interest

13.5 To obtain a share certificate in accordance with the relevant law

13.6 To have a preemptive right (right of first refusal) to purchase new shares in proportion to their existing shareholding whenever the company issues additional shares to increase its capital

13.7 To inspect and take copies of the company's balance sheet, profit and loss statements, auditor's reports, Board of Directors' reports and resolutions, resolutions of the general meeting, and the register of shareholders.

Article Fourteen: Benefits of Founders and Subscribing Shareholders

Without prejudice to the benefits provided to shareholders under the provisions of the Commercial Code, founders and subscribing shareholders shall receive the following special benefits:

14.1 In recognition of sacrificing their money, time, and knowledge to realize the formation of the company, a 10% (ten percent) share of the company's net profits shall be allocated to the founders for a duration of 3 (three) years starting from the time the company begins generating profit. The "Founders' Committee" refers to those who brought about the formation of the company as defined under Article 148 of the Commercial Code.

CamScanner

14.2 Neither founders nor subscribing shareholders shall receive any special benefits from the share company other than the benefits specified in the sub-articles above.

Chapter Three

Governance and Administration of the Share Company

Article Fifteen: Governance Organs of the Share Company

15.1 The governance organs of the Share Company are the following:

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders
2. The Board of Directors
3. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
4. The Company Secretary
5. Auditors

15.2 The powers and duties of the principal organs of the company listed above shall be determined in accordance with the Company's Memorandum of Association and the Commercial Code of Ethiopia.

15.3 The company may structure committees accountable to the governance organs when it deems it necessary for the conduct of its operations.

Article Sixteen: General Meetings of Shareholders

16.1 The General Meeting of Shareholders is the highest decision-making organ of the company, in which all shareholders participate.

16.2 Decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be binding on all shareholders of the company.

16.3 General Meetings of shareholders of the company shall be either Ordinary or Extraordinary General Meetings.

Article Seventeen: Powers of the Ordinary General Meeting

Without prejudice to the powers granted by law, the Ordinary General Meeting of the company shall have the following additional powers:

17.1 To appoint and dismiss members of the company's Board of Directors, and to determine their allowances and remuneration;

CamScanner

17.2 To appoint and dismiss the auditors of the company, and to determine their fees

17.3 To examine and pass appropriate resolutions on the balance sheet, profit and loss statement, as well as the reports of the Board of Directors and the auditors

17.4 To decide on the distribution of dividends and other financial matters arising in connection with the preceding financial year

17.5 To authorize the company to issue debentures (bonds)

17.6 To approve the rules of procedure for the nomination and election of the company's Board of Directors

17.7 To appoint and dismiss members of the Board of Directors Nomination Committee

17.8 To pass decisions on all other matters of the company, except those explicitly reserved for the Extraordinary General Meeting.

Article Eighteen: Powers of the Extraordinary General Meeting

Without prejudice to additional powers granted by law, the Extraordinary General Meeting of the company shall have the following powers:

18.1To amend the Memorandum of Association of the company

18.2 To increase or decrease the capital of the company

18.3 To change the name or nationality of the company

18.4 To decide on the dissolution of the company, its conversion into another type of business organization, its division, its liquidation, or its merger with another company

18.5 To decide on other matters specifically assigned to the Extraordinary General Meeting by law.

Article Nineteen: Calling of General Meetings

19.1 The Ordinary General Meeting of the company must be held within six months from the closing date of the financial year. Additional Ordinary General Meetings may be held at any time when deemed necessary.

19.2 An Extraordinary General Meeting of the company may be called at any time.

19.3 Notices to call a General Meeting shall be issued, as the case may be, by the Board of Directors, auditors, liquidators, a court, or other bodies authorized by law.

19.4 The call for a General Meeting must be broadcasted 24 days prior to the meeting via a newspaper of national circulation, television, radio, social media, or other electronic communication methods published in the country.

CamScanner

19.5 Where a General Meeting cannot be held due to a lack of quorum, the second call for the meeting shall be made using the same method as the initial call and within the time limits prescribed by law.

19.6 The notice of call for a General Meeting shall state the name and type of the company, the company's capital, the registration number, the location of the head office, the time and place of the meeting, and the agenda items to be presented.

Article Twenty: Agenda of the General Meeting

20.1 The agenda of the company's General Meeting shall be prepared by the calling body.

20.2 The details of the meeting agenda shall be specified in the notice of call for the General Meeting.

20.3 Without prejudice to Article 372(3) of the Commercial Code regarding directors, no matter outside the agenda items explicitly specified in the notice of call may be presented for discussion or decision during the meeting.

20.4 Shareholders of the company may request additional agenda items to be included in accordance with the criteria and procedures set out in the Commercial Code.

Article Twenty-One: Leadership of the General Meeting

21.1 Except under special circumstances provided by law, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall preside over General Meetings. In the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson of the Board shall lead the meeting. In the absence of the Vice-Chairperson, the senior director among the members of the Board of Directors shall preside. In the absence of a senior director, the General Meeting shall elect its own chairperson.

21.2 At any meeting, by agreement among the members holding the highest number of shares (votes), two willing shareholders shall be designated as vote counters for the meeting.

Article Twenty-Two: Quorum

22.1 Ordinary General Meeting:

a. On the first call for an Ordinary General Meeting, shareholders or proxies representing at least one-fourth (1/4) of the company's capital carrying voting rights must be present.

b. On the second call, the meeting shall proceed as if a quorum is present, regardless of the number of shares represented by the attending shareholders.

22.2 Extraordinary General Meeting:

a. On the first call for an Extraordinary General Meeting, shareholders or proxies representing at least one-third (1/3) of the company's capital carrying voting rights must be present.

b. On the second call, shareholders or proxies representing at least one-fourth (1/4) of the company's capital must be present. On the third call, the meeting shall proceed as if a quorum is complete, regardless of the number of shares represented by the attendees.

Article Twenty-Three: Voting Majorities

23.1 Decisions of the Ordinary General Meeting shall be passed by a majority vote representing the capital held by shareholders present and entitled to vote.

23.2 Decisions of the Extraordinary General Meeting shall be valid only if supported by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the capital represented by shareholders present and entitled to vote.

23.3 Notwithstanding sub-article 23.2, a decision to change the nationality of the company must be supported by the unanimous vote of all shareholders in accordance with Article 402(2) of the Commercial Code.

23.4 Decisions requiring shareholders to increase their investment shall require the unanimous vote of all shareholders under Article 402(3) of the Commercial Code, unless the capital increase is made by increasing the value of existing shares using the company's reserve funds or distributable profits.

23.5 Abstentions and blank voting ballots shall not be considered for the calculation of voting majorities.

Article Twenty-Four: Voting

24.1 Each share shall carry one vote.

24.2 No shareholder may vote, whether on their own behalf or as a proxy for a third party, on agenda items that give rise to a conflict of interest with the company.

24.3 Members of the Board of Directors may not vote on agendas concerning their own responsibility, liability, or matters that give rise to a direct or indirect conflict of interest with the company.

Article Twenty-Five: Proxy Voting

25.1 Any shareholder may be represented at the company's meetings by another person, whether a shareholder or not. A shareholder who has granted a proxy may not personally participate or vote in the meeting.

25.2 A proxy granted to participate in a General Meeting must be in writing and signed. The content of the proxy form, and the place and time for its submission, shall be determined by the Board of Directors. A proxy granted to participate in a shareholders' meeting shall not be valid for more than one meeting.

25.3 Regarding rights and obligations at the meeting, the proxy holder shall be deemed identical to the appointing shareholder.

Article Twenty-Six: Minutes

26.1 The discussions and decisions of the company's General Meeting must be recorded in minutes. The minutes shall contain the details specified under Article 387(3) of the Commercial Code.

26.2 Without prejudice to the authority granted to the meeting under Article 387(2) of the Commercial Code, it must be verified by the directors and the Company Secretary present at the meeting that the discussions held and decisions passed have been accurately transcribed into the minutes.

Article Twenty-Seven: Attendance Sheet of the Meeting

27.1 The company must maintain an attendance sheet of the participants present at the meeting in accordance with Article 378 of the Commercial Code.

27.2 The attendance sheet shall contain the matters specified under Article 378(1) of the Commercial Code, and the Company Secretary must verify that shareholders or proxies present in person have signed it.

Article Twenty-Eight: Board of Directors

28.1 The company shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of nine (9) members appointed by the Ordinary General Meeting of shareholders.

28.2 The company's Board of Directors shall fulfill the appropriate mix of education, work experience, and gender composition in accordance with the criteria set by the National Bank of Ethiopia. Those eligible for election as board members must meet the necessary fitness and propriety criteria under relevant laws.

28.3 Members of the Board of Directors shall represent the company collectively.

Article Twenty-Nine: Term of Office of Board Members

29.1 The term of office of the company's Board of Directors shall be three (3) years. Directors whose terms have expired may be re-elected for a second (2nd) term. Under exceptional circumstances, directors may be elected for a third (3rd) term.

29.2 Notwithstanding sub-article 1, directors whose terms have expired shall remain in office until the appointments of newly selected directors are approved by the National Bank of Ethiopia.

Article Thirty: Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson of the Board

30.1 The Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson of the company's Board of Directors shall be elected by the members of the Board of Directors. Only a board member who is a shareholder of the company may serve as Chairperson of the Board.

30.2 The board of the company may dismiss the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson at any time and appoint another Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson in their stead.

Article Thirty-One: Replacement of Board Members

31.1 If one or more vacancies occur on the Board of Directors during the financial year, and more than half of the remaining members are in office, the vacancies shall be filled from among the alternate directors.

31.2 The appointment of replacement directors must be submitted to the next General Meeting for approval. The meeting may approve the appointment or elect other directors in their stead.

31.3 The term of office of the replacement directors shall expire at the same time the term of the vacating members would have expired.

31.4 If the number of remaining members of the Board of Directors falls below half of the total number of members, the remaining members must call an Ordinary General Meeting to fill the vacancies.

CamScanner

Article Thirty-Two: Dismissal of Board Members

Article Thirty-Three: Remuneration and Allowance of Directors

33.1 Members of the Board of Directors shall be paid remuneration determined by the Ordinary General Meeting of the company for the services they render.

33.2 Subject to the limitations set by the directives of the National Bank of Ethiopia, the Ordinary General Meeting of the company shall determine the annual remuneration to be paid to the Board of Directors, calculated based on total expenditures. Furthermore, without prejudice to the provisions of the Commercial Code and directives issued by the National Bank of Ethiopia, the meeting may decide to allocate a specified share of the company's annual net profit to the directors.

33.3 Payments to members of the Board of Directors from the company's net profit shall be affected only if dividends are distributed to shareholders in that same year. The remuneration paid to board members shall be proportional to the member's annual participation in board meetings.

Article Thirty-Four: Guarantees to be Provided by Board Members

34.1 As a guarantee for the proper discharge of their duties and responsibilities, members of the Board of Directors shall each pledge 20 shares with an aggregate value of ETB 10,000.00 (ten thousand Birr). However, a board member whose shareholding is below ETB 10,000 (ten thousand Birr) or a board member who holds no shares in the institution shall deposit ETB 5,000 (five thousand Birr) into a blocked account of the institution as a performance guarantee.

34.2 Directors who are not shareholders of the company may lodge any legally acceptable guarantee equivalent to the aforementioned guarantee amount.

34.3 Shares or guarantees held and deposited with the company shall be released only when the director vacates office and it is verified that there are no outstanding liabilities owed to the company from their period of service.

Article Thirty-Five: Meetings of the Board of Directors

35.1 Unless a different time or place is determined, the Board of Directors shall hold a regular meeting at least once a month at the company's head office or via electronic means. The Chairperson of the Board may call extraordinary meetings when necessary.

CamScanner

35.2 Board meetings shall be called by the Chairperson, or in their absence, by the Vice-Chairperson. The notice of call, along with the agenda of the meeting, must be sent to all directors prior to the date of the meeting.

35.3 Board meetings shall be presided over by the Chairperson of the Board, or in their absence, by the Vice-Chairperson. In the absence of both, the directors present at the meeting shall elect a director to preside over the meeting.

35.4 A quorum shall be constituted when at least half of the total members of the board are present.

35.5 Board resolutions shall be passed by a majority vote. Each director shall have one vote. In the event of an equal split in votes, the Chairperson of the Board shall have a casting vote.

35.6 A board member may be represented by another board member at board meetings. However, no board member may act as a proxy for more than one other board member.

35.7 Minutes of board meetings must be recorded and signed by the directors present at the meeting and the Company Secretary.

35.8 The board shall issue its own rules of procedure for meetings. All directors must comply with these bylaws.

Article Thirty-Six: Duties and Liabilities of Board Members

Without prejudice to the provisions of the Commercial Code and directives of the National Bank of Ethiopia, members of the Board of Directors shall have the following duties and liabilities:

36.1 Members of the company's board must work to ensure the benefit of the company and all its shareholders.

36.2 Without prejudice to statutory provisions, members of the Board of Directors have an obligation to perform their duties with good faith, care, and diligence.

36.3 Any board member must recuse themselves from situations that may create a direct or indirect conflict of interest with the company.

36.4 Members of the Board of Directors shall be jointly and severally liable to the company for damages caused by the non-performance of their duties.

CamScanner

Article Thirty-Seven: Powers and Duties of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is obligated to perform the duties assigned to it by law, the company's Memorandum of Association, or resolutions of the General Meeting. Without prejudice to this generality, the board shall have the following responsibilities:

37.1 To direct and supervise the business activities of the company

37.2 To manage the finances of the company, and to ensure that the company maintains adequate capital and liquidity to meet its payments

37.3 To approve investments made by the microfinance institution

37.4 To establish operational systems to control the risk exposure and internal procedures of the microfinance institution

37.5 To approve the organizational structure, staff salary scale, and benefits of the microfinance institution

37.6 To approve and amend the policies of the microfinance institution

37.7 To prevent harm to the company, and where prevention is not possible, to mitigate potential negative impacts

37.8 To designate authorized signatories for the company's bank accounts as necessary

37.9 To review and approve the annual budget and operation plan of the company

37.10 To approve and amend the interest rate structure of the microfinance institution

37.11 To establish and maintain reserve funds in accordance with the Commercial Code, this Memorandum of Association, or resolutions of the General Meeting

37.12 To initiate or cause the opening of preventive restructuring procedures, reorganization procedures, or bankruptcy proceedings, as the case may be, if the company's capacity to pay its debts diminishes or if it ceases payments

37.13 To approve the strategic plan, annual plan, and budget of the microfinance institution, and monitor their execution

37.14 To appoint, determine the remuneration of, and dismiss the Chief Executive Officer and Deputy Chief Executive Officers of the microfinance institution

37.15 To decide on the opening and closing of branches, and the appointment, assignment, and dismissal of department directors/managers and the Company Secretary, based on proposals submitted by the Chief Executive Officer

37.16 To ensure that inventory and asset counts are conducted timely at the end of each financial year, and to prepare a balance sheet statement showing the profit and loss of the microfinance institution

CamScanner

37.17 To call meetings of the company in accordance with the Commercial Code or this Memorandum of Association

37.18 To immediately call an Extraordinary General Meeting when the company loses three-fourth (3/4) of its capital due to losses

37.19 To call the General Meeting of shareholders of the microfinance institution and present an annual performance report, including financial activities, to the meeting

37.20 To ensure that minutes of the General Meeting and board meetings, books of account, share registers, registers of directors, and other necessary documents are properly maintained

37.21 To submit the appointment and remuneration of the external auditors of the microfinance institution to the Ordinary General Meeting for approval

37.22 To review and approve proposals submitted by the manager of the microfinance institution to borrow funds from banks and other institutions when necessary for operations, and to pledge the movable or immovable assets of the company as collateral for the benefit of the company or third parties, upon finding it beneficial to the company

37.23 To approve proposals to provide joint and several guarantees in the name of the company in the form of a pledge for the benefit of the company or third parties, and to borrow money from banks and other financial institutions, when necessary for the operational flow of the microfinance institution and upon verifying that it protects the interests of closely related third parties and the company

37.24 To issue debentures (bonds) and approve the security collateral associated therewith

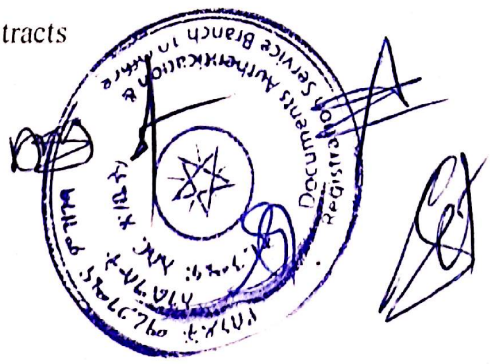

37.25 To decide on the purchase, sale, exchange, disposal, and transfer of ownership of non-credit-related movable and immovable property of the microfinance institution, as permitted by the directives of the National Bank of Ethiopia

Chapter Four

Miscellaneous Provisions

Article Forty-One: Annual Report of the Company

The Company shall publish its annual financial report and statutory reports required by law in widely circulated newspapers in the country authorized to publish legal notices, as well as on the Company's website.

Article Forty-Two: Financial Year of the Company

CamScanner

The financial year of the Company shall run from July 1 to June 30 of the following year in accordance with the Gregorian calendar.

Article Forty-Three: Legal Reserve Fund

43.1 In accordance with Article 434(1) of the Commercial Code, five percent (5%) of the Company's net profit shall be transferred annually to the statutory legal reserve fund. However, the obligation to transfer funds shall cease when the amount accumulated in the legal reserve fund reaches five percent (5%) of the capital of the Company.

43.2 If, for any reason, the legal reserve fund falls below the amount specified in sub-article (43.1) of this Memorandum of Association, the obligation to transfer funds shall apply until the reserve is restored to that level.

43.3 Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 434 sub-article (2) of the Commercial Code and sub-articles (43.1) and (43.2) of this Memorandum of Association, the Extraordinary General Meeting may increase the capital of the Company by transferring the reserve funds of the Company, in whole or in part, into the capital. However, where the legal reserve fund is capitalized into the Company's main capital, no distribution of any kind may be made to shareholders until the former statutory legal reserve fund is reconstituted.

43.4 The Ordinary General Meeting may, upon proposals submitted to it by the Board of Directors or the external auditor, decide on the establishment of additional or alternative reserve funds.

Article Forty-Four: Accounting System

44.1 The books of account and asset records of the Company shall be maintained in accordance with the law and generally accepted business accounting rules and principles.

44.2 The Company shall prepare documents reflecting its statement of assets and liabilities (inventory) at the closing of each financial year.

44.3 The Board of Directors shall prepare the Company's balance sheet, profit and loss statement, as well as a report detailing the state of affairs and activities of the Company during the preceding financial year.

44.4 The Company's financial report must include a detailed breakdown of the profit and loss account, accurately reflect the remuneration and allowances received by board members, the Chief Executive Officer, and auditors, and explicitly indicate the proposed allocation and distribution layout if a dividend payment proposal has been submitted.

CamScanner

Article Forty-Five: Allocation and Distribution of Profits

45.1 Dividends of the Company shall be distributed from the net profits after deducting prior years' losses, statutory allocations to the legal reserve, dividend taxes, and any other accounts required to be deducted.

45.2 The dividend entitlement of shareholders shall be calculated considering the amount of paid-up capital invested in the Company and the specific timing within the financial year during which such capital was paid up.

45.3 The timing and manner of dividend distribution shall be decided by the Annual General Meeting upon the recommendation and proposal of the Board of Directors.

Article Forty-Six: Dissolution and Liquidation of the Company

The Company may be dissolved by operation of law or by decision of the shareholders in accordance with the Commercial Code and the Microfinancing Business Proclamation No. 626/2009, upon securing approval from the National Bank of Ethiopia. The execution of such dissolution shall be conducted in the manner specified under the Proclamation.

46.1 The General Meeting that resolves to dissolve the Company shall appoint not less than three liquidators.

46.2 The General Meeting may appoint shareholders of the Company to serve as liquidators.

46.3 The General Meeting that resolves to dissolve the Company shall determine the remuneration of the liquidators.

46.4 The net assets remaining after the settlement of all corporate liabilities and debts shall be distributed among the shareholders in proportion to their paid-up shares.

Article Forty-Seven: Duration of the Company

The Company is established for an indefinite period of time.

Article Forty-Eight: Arbitration

In the event of a dispute arising between the Company and its members (shareholders), the matter shall be resolved by arbitrators selected by both parties. However, if one party fails to agree on the selection, the court may appoint the arbitrators on their behalf.

Article Forty-Nine: Amendment and Applicability of the Memorandum of Association

49.1 Matters not explicitly covered in this Memorandum of Association shall be governed and decided in accordance with the Commercial Code and other relevant laws.

49.2 This Memorandum of Association shall be amended only by a resolution of the Extraordinary General Meeting.

49.3 This Memorandum of Association shall become effective after being approved by the General Meeting, authorized by the National Bank of Ethiopia, and registered with the Documents Registration and Authentication Agency (Federal Authenticator).
